THE SNOUTERS

THE BAND

THE SNOUTERS are an Italian ska-punk band blending the modern energy of The Interrupters with the 2-Tone roots of The Specials, shaken up with the Californian punk of Rancid and Blink-182.

The result is an original sound led by a warm, gritty female voice, with lyrics that mix irony and social criticism.

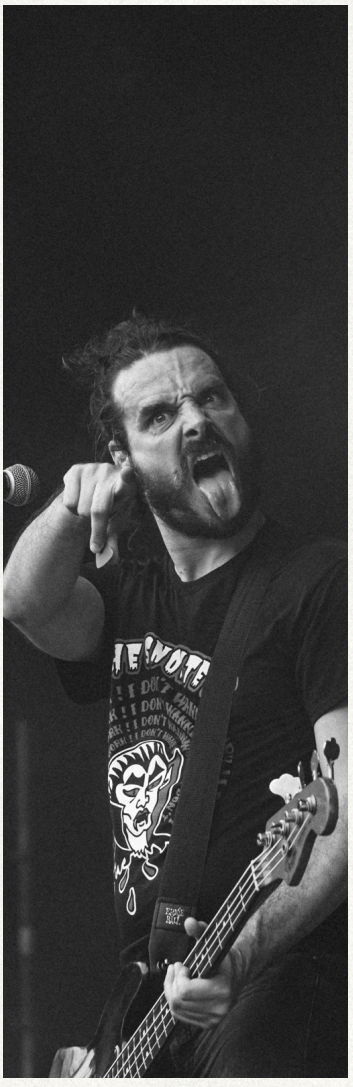

Since 2024 the band has released an EP, a single and a full-length album, and in 2026 alone they played 35 shows in 4 countries. Their second album is due in the first half of 2027.

In 2026 The Snouters took their show to 35 stages in 4 countries (Germany, Switzerland, Czech Republic and Italy), starting with a tour of 10 shows in 10 days in March, from Berlin to Hamburg (with Wonk Unit) and on to Olten, Switzerland.

Between May and July the band played 10 festivals: Rock am Kuhteich, Punk Meets People, Open Air am Lindenhain, Ell Fest, Rock am Berg, Farewell Youth Fest, Lonesome Lake Festival, Pont Dla Preda Fest, This Is Ska Festival in Dessau-Roßlau (one of Europe's leading ska festivals) and Fallig Open Air in Enkirch.

In October they returned to Germany for 6 shows: Saarbrücken, Kassel, Hannover, Detmold, Punklok Festival in Jever and Bierschinken Fest in Dortmund.

In February 2027 the band plays its first UK shows, including A Fistful of Ska Festival in Leeds.

SNOUTS UP! (2026)

The debut album by The Snouters: twelve original songs where ska-punk energy meets lyrics that mix irony, social criticism and everyday stories. The common thread is second chances: getting back up, questioning the world around us and imagining a different future without losing the smile.

Co-produced by Rumagna Sgroza (IT), Rusty Knife (FR) and Fire & Flames (DE). Recorded and mixed by Mattia Bertani (Let's Burn Studio), mastered by Mirko Ferrara (Vai Mirko), artwork by Nicolò Venturi. Guests: Alex Wonk of Wonk Unit (vocals on "Sushi Cats"), Giovanni Sgorbati (trombone on "Growin' Up") and Alessandro "Poto" Esposti (keyboards on every track).

WHAT THEY SAY

"Snouts Up! is an 'all killer, no filler' album, and it's better than the last Interrupters record. Much better!"
Ox Fanzine (DE)

"For me, already a strong contender for ska-punk album of the year."
Away From Life (DE)

"A debut that puts its finger on the wound, with a sense of irony that becomes its strength."
Punkadeka (IT)

"Keep an eye on this band. They're going to be huge."
Bearded Gentlemen Music (USA)
