THE SNOUTERS

BIOGRAPHY

THE SNOUTERS are an Italian ska-punk band fronted by singer Eva, blending the contemporary punch of The Interrupters with the spirit of 2-Tone and a California punk edge inspired by Rancid and Blink-182. Their songs pair Eva's warm, gritty voice with personal lyrics about the worries, hopes and observations of our time.

Formed by musicians with years of experience in the international ska and punk scene, the band made its debut in 2024 with the single Take the Leap and its first self-titled EP. In 2025 they released the single Ghost Town, a tribute to The Specials, and started working with Billig People Booking.

In 2026, supported by Rumagna Sgroza, Rusty Knife and Fire & Flames, The Snouters released their first full-length album, Snouts Up!, which earned a colored-vinyl reissue just a few months later. Germany's Ox Fanzine called it an "all killer, no filler" record and went even further:

"It's better than the last Interrupters album. Much better!"

The review also highlighted Eva's talent and the band's ability to sound effortless, tight and perfectly cohesive.

The stage is where the band lives: in 2026 alone they played 35 shows across Italy, Germany, Switzerland and the Czech Republic, including This Is Ska Festival, Fallig Open Air and Rock am Berg.

In February 2027 The Snouters will play their first UK shows, including A Fistful of Ska Festival in Leeds, while their second album is currently being recorded.
